

city of greenville

News Release

CITY ANNOUNCES SPRING RECREATION SCHEDULE

Parks and Recreation Department to offer a variety of youth and adult programs

(Greenville SC) – The City of Greenville Parks and Recreation Department has announced its new spring recreation programming, which features leisure activities and sports for both youth and adult residents and visitors to enjoy. The programs will focus on athletics, fitness, wellness and recreation and will be offered at four of its community centers and several athletic fields and parks.

“Spring will be here soon, and we have many great opportunities for people to get out and be active! We have a great lineup of programs that offer families a variety of activities from Let’s Move Kids Fitness to Adult Softball to Dancing,” said Pam Davis, Recreation Programs Manager. “We are continuing many programs that people enjoy, including Adult Softball, Youth Soccer, Yoga and Dance and added new programs, such as Fencing and Sewing. Parks and Recreation also recently launched a brand new website that allows users to easily view, search and register for upcoming programs.”

To view a complete lineup of the spring programs or register online, please call 864-467-4355 or visit <https://play.greenvillesc.gov>.